

PALAFRUGELL'S TOURIST OFFICE – CENTRE OF INTERPRETATION FOR GASTRONOMY

The Pineda Gèlia tourist office

moved to this building in 2013.

Before, it was in another building on the same avenue,

in the Sauleda neighbourhood.

The tourist office helps visitors to the town,

as well as Palafrugell's residents and businesses.

It also promotes projects that drive tourism in the area.

The Centre of Interpretation for Catalan Gastronomy

is in the same building.

Here, you can watch two videos

which explain the evolution of cooking and food

throughout history, and the evolution of tourism in the Empordanet region.

There are also touch panels with information about recipes, markets and the main Catalan products.
